

FREIRAUM FAQs

1. What is the Freiraum?

An open project space and meeting place at the Museum für Kunst & Gewerbe Hamburg.

2. Seit wann gibt es den Freiraum?

Since September 2020.

3. Is the Freiraum part of the museum?

Yes.

4. Who is the Freiraum?

Nina Lucia Groß and Tilman Walther are the curatorial directors. They are assisted by Carina Engelke, Sarah Steffens and a team of local hosts.

5. Who can use the Freiraum?

Anyone who is prepared to engage with the space and share it with others. Guidelines for conduct in the Freiraum can be found in the Freiraum Rules.

6. How can I make use of the Freiraum?

The Freiraum is open during the museum's opening hours – free of charge. Feel free to just drop by. If you would like to use a projector, certain table areas or presenter materials, or if you would like to come as a group of eight or more people, please send a written request to: freiraum@mkg-hamburg.de

7. Can I rent the Freiraum or use it alone by myself or in a group?

Not during opening hours.

8. Can I hold events and/or programmes in the Freiraum?

The curated space in the museum has its own programme, developed in cooperation with its users. Feel free to write or speak to us about any suggestions you may have.

Programmes or events that have not been announced in advance and arranged in consultation with us are not permitted.

9. Can I hold exhibitions in the Freiraum?

This is in general not possible. But we are happy to speak with you about your project suggestions. Just write us an email.

10. Is the Freiraum a co-working space?

No.

11. Can I eat and drink in the Freiraum?

Yes, you are welcome to bring your own food and drink. Please note that alcohol is not permitted.

12. How did the selection of books in the Freiraum come about and can I borrow them to take home?

The growing library consists mostly of books acquired through cooperative projects with various groups and initiatives in the city. The books are available to all guests on site and unfortunately cannot be borrowed.

13. Is it quiet in the Freiraum?

That varies a lot. Most of the time it is relatively quiet, but it is not a quiet room like a library. People may be talking, and one of three music mixes put together especially for the Freiraum by Hamburg artists will be quietly playing in the background. These change from time to time.
